SIR,

I am directed to invite a reference to my letter No. 311, dated the 25th April 1902, regarding the import into Coorg by Messrs. Parry and Co., of strong spirit manufactured in the Bangalore Distillery.

2. Messrs. Parry and Co, have now been permitted by the Government of Madras to convey spirit under bond from (the distillery at Nellikuppam in South Arcot to the distillery at Fraserpet in Coorg, and they request the permission of the Mysore Darbar for the transmission of that spirit by rail and road across the Mysore Province.

3. The following arrangements for the verification of consignments of liquor sent under bond have been made:—

Under the rules in force in the Madras Presidency, letters of advice (vide form attached) will be forwarded by the officer issuing the consignment at Nellikuppam to the examining officer (Daroga of the Distillery at Fraserpet) and to the Commissioner of Coorg and a permit will accompany the consignment. The examining officer will endorse a certificate of verification on a copy of the permit to be made by him (the original being retained and filed in his office) and forward it direct to the officer issuing the consignment. The fact of the verification will also be reported to the Commissioner by the verifying officer.
